Breathitt Announcements.

We are authorized to announce B. M.

COMBS a candidate for the office of Surveyor of Breathitt county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

I have sold a half interest in THE HERALD, including good will, fixtures,

&c., to Mr. J. Miles Lytle. His name appears at the masthead as co-proprietor and publisher with this issue, and he will hereafter devote his time to the material interests of THE HERALD. Being a native of Wolfe county, he is too well known to the people around here to need an introduction from me, and to those who do not know him, I will say that he is a young man in every way worthy of your confidence and patronage. Mr.

Lytle will solicit subscribers, advertise ments, &c., and at times assist in getting out the paper, while the editorial management remains under the control of Your most humble servant,

SPENCER COOPER.

With the present issue THE HAZEL

GREEN HERALD begins its second year.

During the year just ended we have tried to give our patrons as good a paper as it was in our power to make. That it has been the promoter of many public enterprises is patent to all. The publication of the paper was an enterprise of doubtful success, the editor was an utter stranger to this people, and the outfit was handicapped with its first cost.

Such is no longer the case. The paper is an established certainty, the editor has in a measure become acquainted with the people and their wants, and last, though by no means least, it is practically out of debt. THE HERALD will in the future, as it has in the past, labor for the interests of the people of the mountains in every way that will tend to their advancement—morally, socially and financially. It will use every effort to bring our undeveloped wealth to the notice of capitalists who are seeking investment, and encourage the settling among us of industrious, sober citizens of whatever creed or condition in life.

In all things it is for the people of the mountains, and it becomes every good citizen in this part of the commonwealth to subscribe, and aid us to that extent in the good work we have mapped out.

Let every one feel, with the poet,

"I would not change my native land

For rich Peru with all her gold;

A nobler prize lies in my hand

Than east or western Indies hold."

We return our sincere thanks to all who have favored us with their patronage in the past, and most respectfully solicit a continuance of their aid and the assistance of all others, and promise in return for their kindness to give them the best paper in Eastern Kentucky.

If the State of Kentucky is ever blessed with a new constitution, and it is to be hoped that it may be, the number of senators and representatives should be reduced while the salaries are increased.

banked or in bonds. Near Campton, the county seat of this county, is a coking coal superior to any in the United States, except perhaps one bank in Pennsylvania, and iron ore is easily accessible, but no Roanoke development comes to Campton or any other of our mountain towns. Think of these things, ye bloated bondholders, and unload some of your wealth in developing the richest section of the earth, and instead of realizing 4 per cent. you can have 40.

THE NEWS.

THE STATE AT LARGE.

The debts of Fayette county, which will mature in the next seven years, will amount to $199,000.

Winchester is the only town of its size in the state without an organized fire department.

Eighty-seven brand new doctors have just been turned out by the Louisville medical college.

An incendiary fire at Versailles, Feb.

22d, reduced 12 buildings to ashes and caused a loss of about $15,000.

At Brassfield's combination sale, at Lexington, Feb. 23d, 60 head of horses, colts, mares and fillies brought $33,820.

Both circuit court began Monday, Feb.

23d, with 45 ordinary, 106 equity, and 141 commonwealth cases on the docket.

There are now 83 students studying for the ministry at the Bible college of the Kentucky university, in Lexington.

President H. K. Taylor, of Logan female college, Russellville, is announced as a candidate for state school superintendent.

Mrs. Gallavin, an old lady aged 70 years, living near Frankfort, was burned to death Feb. 23d, while endeavoring to light a fire.

Chas. R. Long, president of the Louisville water works, has sued the Louisville

Commercial company for libel, and claims $50,000 damages.

Frankfort Capital: The Yeoman has launched into wholesale abuse of the legislature. No better indication could be shown that the legislature is doing its duty.

Miss Mildred Lee, daughter of the late Gen. Robert E. Lee, was tendered a reception at Louisville last week, by about 200 ex-confederate soldiers and the alumni of Washington and Lee university.

Messrs. Finley, of Louisville, and Jett, of Frankfort, are the lucky Kentuckians in the postoffice inspector contest. The anouncement of Mr. E. Finley's appointment has been made, and Mr. Jett has received his commission.

Frankfort Capital: Mr. J. M. Pigman, sheriff of Knott county, was in the city yesterday settling with the auditor, and says he will have his quietus before he is done.

This is a good showing for the new county of Knott and for her sheriff.

Winchester Democrat: Kentucky timber is now one of the state's most valuable resources. It should be carefully husbanded. A few acres planted in walnut trees now by any of our young farmers will give them an independent fortune in their old age. The work is small and returns sure.

Frankfort Capital: Parties who have visited Lexington, of late, report that Hart's great masterpiece, "The Triumph of Chastity," is greatly neglected in its present quarters, in the rounds of the new court-house.

It is covered with dirt and tobacco stains, and has been in the hands of any one who may seek to mutilate its beauty.

THE KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

The session of the legislature has been extended indefinitely.

A bill disfranchising persons convicted of felony has passed the senate.

Senator Berry has offered a bill in the state senate making eight hours a legal day's work.

The Courier-Journal thinks the legislature will not adjourn until about the 25th of April.

The bill to charter a normal school at Bowling Green has been passed in the senate by a vote of 22 to 5.

Senator Sparks, from Jessamine county, has offered a resolution asking Kentucky congressmen to oppose any proposed alteration in the tariff in regard to hemp and hemp manufactures.

Wesley Dale, a citizen of Shelbyville, Ill., surreptitiously entered a saloon, turning on the faucet of the whiskey barrels and allowed the liquor to run out, causing a loss to the owner of $800. He was a temperance fanatic.

Boston Corbett, the federal soldier who has the reputation of killing John Wilkes Booth, has drifted out to Kansas and become a householder. He has lived on his quartermaster's long enough, after deducting his service in the army, to be entitled to a patent.

Courier-Journal: Miss Fanny Mills, of Ohio, who is to be married soon, is a lady of fair understanding. She wears a No. 30 slipper, and has had a pair built in New York to wear at home. The ball, 22 inches; across instep, 22; across heel, 25; around the ankle, 20 inches. It appears that Ohio's political rascals are not its only abnormal growth.

LOOK HERE—Read this, please.—We have carried slow customers until we are loaded down, and it is impossible to continue to credit those whose notes and accounts are past due. We must have pay from you, and will take live stock at its value on notes and accounts. Do not call for credit, even if you are good, if you are owing us and have not settled. We mean what we say. J. T. & F. DAY.

A Terrific Explosion.

A special from Winchester to the Courier-Journal, dated Feb. 22, says, An explosion occurred here at 12:30 to-day, which for wholesale destruction rivals even the memorable casualty of August 1883, when 600 kegs of powder exploded simultaneously on the cars at the crossing of the Kentucky Central and Chesapeake and Ohio. The grocery occupied by Mary Wills, of color, situated on North Main street, was literally blown to atoms. The facts are as near as I have been able to glean from many condicting reports—for it was court day, and thousands of people were in the city—are about as follows: A clerk was weighing out a quantity of gun powder from a can when the powder ignited from a match, with which a man was lighting a cigar, resulting in an explosion, which shook the very foundations of the house all around and creating a report as loud as a cannon. The house was filled with occupants, both white and black, and, remarkable as it may appear, only a dozen or fifteen were even seriously hurt. Several of the parties who were in the house, together with a number who were crowded on the street without, were blown half-way across the street a distance of 30 yards or more. The walls of the house, which is a frame building, were torn loose from their foundation, and though still standing, the house is a total wreck. Following is a list of those who are most seriously hurt: Byrd Hopper, a white boy, aged 15, severely burned from waist up and both eyes put out; he will certainly die. John T. True, white, married, severely burned about the head and neck, is unconscious, and there is but little hope of his recovery; Bird White, aged 22, white, very badly burned about the face, head and hands, but will probably recover; John Martin, white, severely burned and badly wounded by falling timbers; Newkirk and Taylor, white, both painfully burned and bruised, will recover; Jim Derrick, colored, badly burned and fearfully shocked and bruised, will probably recover; Wm.

Murray, colored, badly burned and arm broken in two places; Lewis Woodford, colored, severely burned and badly hurt from falling timbers; unknown colored boy, badly burned about the face, head cut. There are several other colored persons badly hurt, but their names could not be obtained. Mary Wills escaped unhurt, but is said to be crazy tonight from the shock. The house is a low drive and has long been an eye-sore to the city, and there is little doubt but that the real cause of most of the destruction was due to dynamite, or some other infernal machine. Dynamite was found concealed under the foundation of the house about a year ago, and it is generally believed tonight that the explosion of the small quantity of gun powder caused a sufficient shock to cause the dynamite to be discharged. Much excitement prevails here tonight, especially in the negro quarters.

Courier-Journal: The house has refused to grant an appropriation of $3,000 to defray the expense of the Kentucky display at the New Orleans exposition.

Commissioner Soule Smith has worked under many disadvantages in securing the creditable display made by Kentucky, and it is discouraging to find his labors so utterly unappreciated. The money asked for is not for Mr. Smith's personal benefit, but to defray expense of collecting, transporting, and arranging the display, and there ought to be public spirit enough in the legislature to vote the small sum necessary to do so. A reconsideration and a better understanding will probably result more favorably.

The governor vetoed the pleuro-pneumonia bill on the ground of its unconsti-the governor's objections to the contrary notwithstanding, will be made, but as a two-thirds affirmative vote is necessary to do this, it will most probably fail.

LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL CO.
Tells What He Knows of
WINTERSMITH'S
CHILL CURE.

OFFICE OF THE COURIER-JOURNAL, LOUISVILLE.
Dr. Wintersmith, Sir: I waive a rule I have observed for many years, and I am sending you a copy of my book, in reply to your request, which I know of your "Chill Cure." The private assurance of its efficacy I had, and the good results of its effect I observed on Mr. R. W. Meredith, who for more than fifteen years, has been a sufferer from "chills," and he is now a healthy man. The cure has been entirely satisfactory. The first case of two years' standing, which your "Chill Cure" relieved, the chills returning periodically and seemingly with increasing severity. Your cure broke them at once, and there has been no recurrence of them for more than six months. The other case was of a sufferer from "chills," and your medicine was remedied; but the chills would return at intervals, until your medicine was used, since which time, now several months, they have entirely disappeared.
From the opportunity I have had to judge, I do not hesitate to express my belief that your "Chill Cure" is a valuable specific, and performs all you promise for it. Very respectfully, W. N. HALDEMAN.
